Laboratory Training for the Packaging and Shipping of Infectious Substances

Description: This training will cover General Awareness, Safety, Security and Function Specific Regulations for shipping Infectious Substances (Category A & B) and Dry Ice in accordance with the requirements of the U.S. Department of Transportation (49CFR), the United States Postal Service (Publication 52), and the International Air Transport Association (IATA).

Audience: This training is primarily for hospital personnel who have a role in the packaging and shipping of Category A and B infectious substances and do not have a current certification.

Instructors: Personnel from the Division of Laboratory Services, Frankfort, KY will provide training

Length of Training: 3.5 Hours

Certification: Certification is good for 2 years from the date of training.

Registration: To register for this class, please contact Leigh Ann Bates via email at LeighAnn.Bates@ky.gov Leigh Ann will send a confirmation email to you once registered.

Date/Location: November 5, 2014 from 9:30 A.M – 1:00 P.M. (EST) Kentucky Hospital Association, 2501 Nelson Miller Parkway, Suite 200 Louisville, KY 40223
Location Point of Contact: Dick Bartlett at rbartlett@kyha.com or at (502) 426-6220 Ext 4305.